SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 1ST PASTOR’S NOTES:

The Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown celebrated the national observance of Catholic Schools Week 2026 January 25-31. This year’s theme was Catholic Schools: United in Faith and Community. Here in the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, along with St Peter’s, there are 15 Catholic schools. The following was Bishop Mark’s Catholic Schools Week 2026 message.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, I am not exaggerating when I tell you that Catholic education in the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown is reaching new heights. A few weeks ago, students at one of our elementary schools earned certification from the Federal Aviation Administration as drone pilots. The achievement came after extensive training and testing — all part of the STREAM (Science, Technology, Religion, Engineering, the Arts, and Math) curriculum at the school that is engaging young minds and offering hands-on learning opportunities. The drone initiative there, which is preparing students for in-demand aviation jobs, is cutting edge for elementary schools and will be used as a national model. And there is more good news: soon that drone program will expand to all our Catholic schools in the diocese. Even more significant than the academic opportunities we provide is the environment in which we offer them. Yes, the R in the word STREAM that I mentioned earlier stands for Religion, but it goes well beyond a theology textbook. Jesus Christ is the center of life in the classroom, the cafeteria, the athletic field, the stage, and everywhere else on our campuses. The theme for Catholic Schools Week 2026 — United in Faith and Community — plays out every day as students come to know and love the Lord, grow in faith, and serve others. As Bishop, it is beautiful for me to witness, and it renews my optimism for the future. This Catholic Schools Week, I salute our students, families, educators, pastors, and all who support the great mission of Catholic education in the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown. Please be assured of my gratitude, prayers, and enthusiastic support. Indeed, it is not just drones that are taking flight in Catholic schools in the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, but also the opportunity for a complete education experience rooted in Christ. So, let’s celebrate this Catholic Schools Week 2026, and, United in Faith and Community, may God continue to help us soar!

Sincerely in Christ,
Most Rev. Mark L. Bartchak, Bishop of Altoona-Johnstown

FEAST OF OUR LORD’S PRESENTATION, MONDAY FEBRUARY 2nd - This feast reminds us that we, like Jesus, are to be a light for all the nations. Forty days after His birth, Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the Temple in Jerusalem to fulfill two Mosaic laws: to present their firstborn son to God and to “purify” Mary after childbirth, along with the appropriate sacrifices. Although neither Jesus nor Mary needed “purified”, they participate in these rituals as faithful and observant Jews within their community. Since Jesus is revealed as “a light of revelation to the nations and the glory of God’s people,” candles are blessed on this feast for use at home and during liturgy, reminding us that Christ is the light of the world. Monday, February 2, the Feast of our Lord’s Presentation, is also the World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life. It’s purpose is “to help the entire Church to esteem ever more greatly the witness of those persons who have chosen to follow Christ by means of the practice of the evangelical counsels” as well as “to be a suitable occasion for (CONT.) consecrated persons to renew their commitment and rekindle the fervor which should inspire their offering of themselves to the Lord” (St. John Paul II, 1997). Be sure to pray for those who have made commitments to serve the Lord and the Church as professed religious women and men. So many of our lives were positively influenced especially by the religious sisters who taught us.

HEALING MASS - Holy Spirit Ministry will hold a special Healing Mass on Tuesday, February 3rd at 7PM at St. Michael Church, Hollidaysburg. This powerful night of hope and healing is for all who are suffering physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Fr. Jeremy Mohler will be the main celebrant. Praise and worship will precede the Mass at 6:30 PM and prayer ministry will follow the Mass. If you are suffering physically, or from an addiction, or hurting or struggling in any way, come and experience the healing power of Jesus and be set free! All are welcome!

THE HOLY FACE of JESUS – A Sacred Relic Presentation Join us for a powerful presentation centered on the Holy Face of Jesus, drawing from the Church’s rich devotional tradition and the relic associated with the Veil of Veronica. This evening invites prayer, reparation, and deeper contemplation of Christ’s suffering love.
